

Team Descriptions:

- The Systems and Services Solutions Team will perform the management role across all new BHA IT project deliveries, including new core IT products and services sought to improve BHA efficiency in RMT/DART stand-up, communications delivery, HelpDesk, and IT application development/delivery, and further propagate BHA's mission success.
- The Operations and Maintenance team will provide management and oversight of all help desk and customer support, asset management, and BHA response operations IT support and services. This team is responsible for ongoing RMT/DART stand-up, communications delivery, HelpDesk, and IT application development/delivery.
- The Information Assurance & Security team will provide management and oversight of all BHA IT information and security support and services associated with BHA response operations. This team is responsible for ensuring compliance and network asset and information security, as they relate to BHA's unique response operations and capacity requirements.